

ACTION NETWORK FOR DIVERSITY INCLUSION (ANDI)

ABOUT:

ANDI provides a self-created space for women of color to come together and participate in fruitful discussion, peer support, resource-sharing, and strategies, in continuing the fight against sexual assault and domestic violence. This program addresses systemic issues of oppression in our society while sustaining advocates of color in anti-violence work.

MISSION STATEMENT:

Women of Color collectively unifying to strengthen and empower our diverse communities; rising up as one voice to increase awareness, bringing forth our energy for the purpose of eradicating domestic and sexual violence. The Action Network for Diversity Inclusion (ANDI) is a diverse group of women who have come together to form an emerging anti-violence network.

DEFINITION OF WOMEN OF COLOR:

Women of or belonging to a racial group not categorized as white.

WHEN: Every last Friday of each month from 11:00am to 1:00pm

WHERE: In Des Moines with traveling meetings held around the state for accessibility throughout the year
